Six students from the Vignana Bharathi Institute of Technology got jobs during the placement drive conducted by the college for Performica Software Pvt. Ltd., on August 25 at their campus. In all, seventy students attended the drive. Initial salary is Rs.8,000 per month, a press note from the institute informed.

The institute also conducted an orientation programme for the first year students of MCA and MBA on August 26 where the freshers and their parents were given a brief profile of the college and explained about the facilities.

On August 15, the Independence Day, students from the institute visited Vaidehi Ashramam, an orphanage at Saroornagar which takes care of 73 students, most of them girls. Sweets and fruits were distributed and games were conducted for the students. As per the request of the children, students of the institute agreed to teach them the subjects Maths, Science and English, the press note informed.

Anti-ragging camp

Vasavi College of Engineering has conducted an anti-ragging awareness camp on its campus between August 13 and 21. Students took an oath against the evil practice on last day of the week. Addressing the students, Circle Inspector of Golconda police station, Chandasekhara Reddy explained the possible actions that could be taken against the students, those who indulged ragging. Principal of the college, D. Chandal Raju advised students to restrain from all the activities that spoil academic atmosphere of the college. Imprint Events, Hyderabad, performed 'Sneham', a skit depicted the consequences of ragging. V.V. Ramana Rao, Dean (Academic) and other staff members were present.
